

Welcome to the BSI German Language School

Beigesteuert von BSI Berlin

The BSI Language School in Berlin GERMAN as a FOREIGN LANGUAGE BSI private language school, indeed, was founded already in 1980 and acquired, over the years, an enormous know-how in teaching German as a Foreign Language. Today, BSI is one of the highly recognized language centres that teach German from the very beginning to university entrance exams like DSH or TestDaF. The continuously growing number of students that arrive from all corners of the world to their German language studies at BSI speaks a very clear language: Competence - Friendliness - Fair prices. These are the passwords to a student's success. Learning the German language is more fun in Germany. Through contact with the local population you acquire correct speaking habits and a good pronunciation within a shorter time. The BSI Language School located in the centre of Berlin is your ideal starting point. Established in 1980, the BSI Language School is now a large and reputed language institute. Our students acquire a sound knowledge of the German language and are always well-received at universities and technical colleges. Our Staff All of our more than 25 teachers are university graduates (State Examination or Master's Degree) and native speakers. Their many years of practice and constant advanced training are the basis for modern teaching methods at our school. Means of Instruction Our school uses modern textbooks from major publishers in addition to instruction material developed by our teachers. Audio and video material is also used during lessons. Advanced courses study topical texts from newspapers, magazines and literature. Group work, excursions, cultural activities and visits to exhibitions all serve to make learning enjoyable and at the same time provide opportunities
